

California State Senate

SENATE MAJORITY LEADER

ELLEN M. CORBETT

10TH SENATE DISTRICT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 7, 2013

Contact: Sergio Reyes
(916) 651-4010

MEDIA ADVISORY

WHO: Senate Majority Leader Ellen M. Corbett (D-East Bay)

WHAT: 2013 “Habitat Means Home” Poster Contest Awardees Celebration

WHEN: Friday, October 11th @ 4:30pm – 6:00pm

WHERE: Office of Senate Majority Leader Ellen M. Corbett
1057 MacArthur Boulevard
Suite 206
San Leandro, CA 94577

WHY: Senator Corbett will host a celebration in her San Leandro district office to honor the 18 student awardees of the “Habitat Means Home” Poster Contest.

The annual “Habitat Means Home” Poster Contest—sponsored by East Bay Regional Park District, the Citizens Committee to Complete the Refuge, the Ohlone Audubon Society, the Friends of Coyote Hills and Carin High—encourages students to submit artwork that celebrates the diverse habitats and species of Coyote Hills Regional Park, while also highlighting the importance of environmental preservation.

Senator Corbett invites families, local residents, community representatives and educators to come together on Friday, October 11th to help celebrate these honored students in grades K-6 at the celebration.

Senator Corbett remains committed to supporting education, artistic student learning, environmental protection and the preservation of local animal habitats.

Ice cream and refreshments will be served during the celebration.

RSVP: 510-577-2310 (Aref Aziz / Office of Senate Majority Leader Ellen M. Corbett)